HUNTS COMMUNITY CANCER NETWORK

One of Huntingdon's best kept secrets is the place to be, at a new base at the MS Therapy Centre at Bradbury House, Mayfield Road. Hunts Community Cancer Network is a local charity helping people across Huntingdonshire with a cancer diagnosis.

"We are a hidden gem and want to raise awareness so that people tell their family and friends that we are there for them - after all, 1 in 2 people will be diagnosed with cancer in their lifetime"

Gill Monsell.

Graham Moore, founder of HCCN and Susan's husband, remarked

"It was wonderful to see Susan's work recognised with local and national awards but her unrealised ambition was to find that welcoming place that could be called a home for HCCN, where various activities could be delivered under one roof. Unfortunately, as with so many things, COVID got in the way of that happening, but now it has been achieved, and wonderfully!"

Cllr David Landon Cole, Mayor of Huntingdon said at a recent event

"HCCN is a wonderful organisation that offers people suffering from cancer support groups, yoga and exercise, community nursing and the opportunity to talk to someone who understands. If you'd like to find out more, they're on Facebook or at <https://www.hccnthecharity.org/>"

HCCN offers support before, during and after a cancer diagnosis. HCCN needs volunteers to support the delivery of activities and spread the word. They also need fundraisers.

Just get in touch if you can offer support at info@hccnthecharity.org
